The coastline around Tenby really is spectacular. And an open-top bus is a lovely way to see it, winding its way between Tenby and Saundersfoot .

There are beautiful beaches and some brilliant coastal walks along the route, so you might walk one way and take the bus back.

Buses run throughout the summer up to every hour, and a day ticket lasts all day. So if a beach, café or viewpoint catches your eye, you can hop off for a wander and pick up the next bus when you're ready.

If you're just travelling one way, single fares are available too, and our group ticket makes things easy for families travelling together.

However you do it, just explore.
