Send us your pics!

A day on the top deck usually comes with a great view or two. If you caught one on camera, we'd love to see it.

Sometimes, especially when the weather is bad, regular buses may be used instead of open-toppers.

explore Weston & Sand Bay

Summer 2026

on an open-top bus ride

This open-top bus is a lovely way to enjoy the coastline between Weston-super-Mare and Sand bay, winding its way around the wooded headland at Kewstoke along the way.

Your day ticket lasts all day, so there's no need to rush. If a beach, café or viewpoint catches your eye, simply hop off for a wander and pick up the next bus when you're ready.

If you're travelling one way, single fares are available too, and our group ticket makes things easy for families heading out together.

However you do it, just explore.

You can hop on or off at any of these bus stops along the route.

Hop-on this open-top bus and follow Weston-super-Mare's shoreline from the wide sandy beaches by The Grand Pier, around the headland at Birnbeck, past the wooded hills of Kewstoke and on to the dunes and beaches of Sand Bay.

The views are spectacular, and if you keep an eye out over the Bristol Channel you may even see the hills of South Wales.
