One of East Anglia's lesser known destinations, Kings Lynn is a place full of history.

Fine old merchants' houses stretch down to the river between cobbled lanes and the elegant Custom House overlooks the harbour. Or why not take a trip on the King's Lynn ferry to see the King's Lynn quayside and town from the banks of West Lynn.

The popular town centre boasts an extensive pedestrianised shopping area with the modern Vancouver Quarter sitting alongside the traditional shopping areas of the town and being complemented by the regular markets in its two historic market places.

some excellent destinations

Norwich

Recently voted one of the top 10 shopping destinations in the UK, this bustling modern city combines a huge array of shops and restaurants, with a wealth of historical landmarks. The cathedral, castle keep and colourful market are complimented by the modern architecture of The Forum, and the narrow pedestrianised streets of The Lanes with their trendy coffee shops and fashionable boutiques.

And if it's food and drink you're looking for, Norwich will never disappoint! The city boasts an enviable selection of independent free houses alongside trendy wine bars.

Famed for its 'foodie' scene, there's a choice of eating places that is second to none, with new ones appearing all of the time.

Peterborough

Whatever you look for in a city, Peterborough has an enviable mix, from heritage attractions to countryside walks, nature reserves and to shops and restaurants.

As well as the magnificent Norman Cathedral with its beautiful grounds, Peterborough boasts a vibrant shopping centre with independent shops and the large indoor Queensgate shopping mall's host of well known national brands. Whilst for food and drink a diverse selection of restaurants serving cuisine for every palette.

Or why not experience a trip on the historic Nene Valley Railway which offers the chance to experience the thrill of riding a steam engine and explore the picturesque surroundings of the Nene Valley area.

Swaffham

One of the most famous market towns in Norfolk, Swaffham boasts a wealth of attractive Georgian buildings facing onto the market square with it's striking Butter Cross and popular Saturday market...there's still an auction and poultry market as well.

An easy town to wander around, there is a great selection of independent cafes and restaurants.

Wisbech

Wisbech, the Capital of the Fens, is the perfect place for a day out, renowned for its' elegant Georgian architecture - you'll find the best examples along the Brinks or around the Crescent.

Explore Peckover House on North Brink or visit Elgood's Brewery - one of the first Georgian breweries to be built outside London and remaning almost unchanged for more than 200 years. You can sample some of their award winning real ales on a brewery tour or in one of the many Elgood's pubs in town.
